C. L. Reppenhagen, our popular saddleryman, Saturday handed us a dollar to send the Republican a year to his mother at Salisbury.

We are sure he'll keep out of mischief now because if he doesn't his mother surely will find it in the Republican.

J. K. Graves, the hustling chicken man, called in Saturday to help along our contest and won first prize—we voted him a jolly good fellow!

J. C. Flike had his address changed from Pittsburg to Holden, Mo. this week, having sold his farm and moved.

One of Hetter & Co horses driven by Floyd Davis was scared on the square yesterday by an automobile and ran away. It ran into a pillar in front of the Southern hotel, knocking it down. The horse was so badly injured that it may die.

Ellis-Mathews

One of the beautiful weddings of the season was that which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Mathew on College Hill Sunday evening Feb. 6 when Rev. Lester Thompson united in holy bonds of matrimony their only daughter Miss Allie and Calvin O. Ellis. It was a wedding that her many friends had looked forward to with pleasure but still it took them by surprise as they were not expecting it till next month.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gray traveling suit the groom as usual in black.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the bride and groom attended by Miss Mildred Lydon as bridesmaid and and J. W. Mathews as groomsmen entered the parlor where the ceremony was said in the presence of a limited number of relatives and friends.

Immediately after the congratulations the guests were ushered to the dining room where an elaborate supper awaited them.

The bride is one of Marshall's most charming young ladies and will no doubt prove a good companion for the man of her choice who is the son of Stephen Ellis and is a prosperous young farmer of Saline. The happy couple received many useful and beautiful presents.

They left on their honeymoon for a visit to the groom's relatives at Centralia, Columbia and Mexico. They will be at home to their friends after March 1st and reside near Malta Bend.

The large circle of friends extend heartfelt congratulations and may they never have cause to regret the step they have taken.

A Guest.

Haynie-Rober son

Walter L. Haynie and Miss Emma L. Robertson, a young couple of Miami, were married by Elder Wharton at his home Tuesday afternoon. They represent prominent families of that part of the county and are well and favorably known. They will reside on a farm near Miami.

Henning-Reynolds

Married Saturday, Feb. 5th at the home of John Griffith, Thomas E. Henning and Miss Josephine Reynolds both of Norton. Rev. Steinhilber officiating. A few relatives witnessed the ceremony and partook of the sumptuous wedding dinner. The bride looked very lovely in white. The groom in the conventional black. They have the best wishes of a large circle of friends.

A Farewell Dance

Quite a crowd gathered on a happy occasion at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Strodtman Tuesday night, February 1st, in honor of their departure for their new home in Independence, Mo. The evening was spent in music, dancing and games of cards, checkers and croquette and continued until the first rays of the sun shone out the next morning. It was enjoyed greatly by all, and will be an occasion to be long remembered. We regret to lose this popular family from our midst, but wish them well in their future home to which they will depart in about two weeks. But hope if they ever decide to change their home again they will decide on "Old Saline." Everybody reported a fine

LITTLE ROCK

Lewis Edwards and J. H. Berlecamp were Marshall callers Friday to take examination for census enumerators. We hope both will be appointed.
